VISION OF THE COLLEGE

The Vision of our college is to develop a center of Excellence in higher education for the backward people of this Malnad region.

This Vision leads us to strive for the enrichment of culture, to develop research- oriented activities, to promote scientific outlook, to honor secularism and to uphold democratic values.

Further, the aim is to promote the youth of this region to find opportunities of career advancement that brings about a sustained and all-round development for the growth of a healthy humane and enlightened society

MISSION

The college envisages to realize the vision by:

- Providing admission to all eligible students of the region to acquire higher education.
- Providing training to the students in the drama, Folk and performing Arts.
- Connecting the curricular activities with the local socio-Economic, cultural and educational conditions.
- To take extra curricular programmes to the level of local social structure, environment and literature.
- Bringing about awareness of one's rights and duties.
- Establishing college-community connections.

“Development of a town must begin with the education of the children of that town”.
